Enter the shadowy realm of conspiracies and espionage with the Howard Gotlieb Archival Research Center. Encounter this hidden world of covert intelligence for yourself by handling original correspondence of some of America’s most infamous spies, such as Michael Burke, Julius & Ethel Rosenberg and many others. Hold original documents from infamous assassins like John Wilkes Booth and James Earl Ray. Examine first-hand accounts by FBI G-Man Melvin Purvis as he tracked down notorious criminal John Dillinger. Join us for an evening of exploration into the criminal underworld.

CONSPIRACIES & SPIES

with Alston Purvis - Associate Professor, CFA and Ryan Hendrickson - Assistant Director, HGARC

FBI Agent Melvin Purvis with FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover

WEDNESDAY
SEPTEMBER 23, 2009
at 7:00 P.M.
HGARC Reading Room
771 Commonwealth Avenue
Fifth Floor of Mugar Library

For more information visit us at www.bu.edu/archives or call 617-353-3696