Importance of an Identity

Today, Boston University competes with academic institutions across the nation and around the globe. Given this dynamic environment, it is increasingly important for us to express a single, compelling voice in everything we do.

The totality of the logo, visuals, and words we use to describe the University will enable us to establish and maintain a clear, unified brand identity, both within the University community and beyond.

This manual provides general guidelines for the visual and verbal articulation of the Boston University brand, as well as specific directions for the application of our updated logo and related elements.

We recommend that you refer to this guide whenever you develop marketing communications. Please visit the website www.bu.edu/brand for more information.

Master Logo Usage

Since the master logo is the common thread throughout University communications, it should be your starting point in the creation of all marketing materials. Deliberate, consistent placement of the logo will establish the University’s name and institutional credence without distraction from your message. There are very specific guidelines regarding the use of the master logo.

THE LOGO MUST BE PRESENT ON ALL UNIVERSITY COMMUNICATIONS

As the primary graphic identity for the institution, the master logo must appear on all communications, including brochures, stationery, business cards, and the University website. The guidelines governing the use of Athletics logos can be found at www.bu.edu/brand/athletics.

TREAT THE LOGO AS ARTWORK, NOT AS TYPOGRAPHY

The master logo is the University’s single most important visual element and should be treated as a graphic icon.

NEVER MANIPULATE THE LOGO IN ANY WAY

This rule includes but is not restricted to type, rules, surrounding boxes, shadows, outlines, and embellishments. Do not create secondary (sub) logos to represent a school, college, center, or institute, as this is confusing to audiences and dilutes our goal of creating a common, mutually reinforcing image.
Master Logo Placement

GIVE THE LOGO ITS OWN SPACE

Balance is an essential feature of good design. Graphics, imagery, and text must all be balanced on the page so that each is able to speak clearly. Placing any element too close to the master logo diminishes its importance.

A clear zone of “B” (b = logo height) around the logo will give it the room it needs to stand out.

THE LOGO MUST APPEAR ON FRONT COVER

Place the master logo on the front cover of all printed promotional collateral materials intended for external audiences (prospective students, parents, etc.) in the upper right corner. For all printed collateral materials intended for internal audiences, place the master logo on the front cover or the back cover.*

*Exceptions to this rule: in the case of mastheads (page 14), place the master logo in the lower right corner. When using a sub-brand signature as primary branding (page 23), place the master logo on the back cover. In the case of the Boston University website, place the master logo in the lower right corner.
Master Logo Colors

BOSTON UNIVERSITY RED

Whenever possible, the master logo should appear in the University's red. It should never be represented in any other colors. Use only 100 percent of the officially designated shades and always insist upon accurate color matching, as poorly matched colors will weaken the impact and effectiveness of our logo.

Sub-brand Logotype Usage

Logotypes brand the individual schools, colleges, offices, and other sub-entities while demonstrating a connection to the University. Use logotypes as complements to the master logo or in signatures on school- and college-specific brochure covers and website home pages.

TREAT THE LOGOTYPES AS ARTWORK, NOT AS TYPOGRAPHY
Sub-brand logotypes must appear either with the master logo or as part of a sub-brand signature.

LOGOTYPES DO NOT REPLACE THE MASTER LOGO
While the individual schools, colleges, departments, and institutes within the University may have their own unique identities, these sub-identities complement, but do not replace, the University master logo.
Sub-brand Logotype Placement

GIVE THE LOGO AND LOGOTYPE THEIR OWN SPACE

When using both the master logo and logotype in marketing communications, be sure to give both marks the respect they deserve by providing adequate distance between the two. Logotypes are complementary, but are not adjuncts, to the master logo.

A clear zone of “b” (b = logo height) around the logo will give it the room it needs to stand out. The clear zone should be proportionate to the size of the master logo.
Sub-brand Logotype Colors

BOSTON UNIVERSITY BLACK

Sub-brand logotypes are secondary to the master logo and should always appear in black—never in BU red. The master logo must be visually prominent, with the logotype clearly subordinate so there is no confusion among the audience as to which is the principal entity. The University is the primary overriding institution, and the group/program/school identification is secondary in the visual hierarchy.

Sub-brand Signature Artwork

Visit www.bu.edu/brand to download the appropriate signature file for your print and website needs.

Boston University College of Arts & Sciences

College of Arts & Sciences
Sub-brand Signature Components

A sub-brand signature comprises the BU icon and one or more sub-brand logotypes. The visual elements of the signature are specifically configured, with each element placed, sized, and rendered in precise relationship to the others to create a unique visual character. Therefore, signatures should not be altered in any way. Approved alternative signatures are available for use in special situations such as verticality where the preferred signature would not perform.

The diagram below shows the visual relationship of the signature components. If you need to make a signature larger or smaller, be sure to maintain the relative scale of the elements.
Sub-brand Signature Usage

Signatures “endorse” and organize the University’s many academic, administrative, and clinical entities, along with sub-units and divisions, under a single institutional umbrella. Use signatures on school- and college-specific brochure covers and website home pages to provide clear emphasis on the sub-brands while demonstrating their connection to the University.* Signatures are complementary to the master logo.

TREAT THE SIGNATURE AS ARTWORK, NOT AS TYPOGRAPHY

Each sub-brand signature must be treated as a unit and should not be modified or changed. This includes the size ratio of the BU icon to the sub-brand logotype.

SIGNATURES CAN ACT AS THE PRIMARY MARK ON INDIVIDUAL PIECES

You may use the sub-brand signature as primary branding on school- or college-level print collateral and websites. However, the master logo should appear on all print collateral in a secondary position, e.g., the back cover. For school and college websites, a hyperlink to the main home page www.bu.edu is sufficient.

*PLEASE REFER TO PAGE 10 FOR FURTHER PLACEMENT INFORMATION.
Sub-brand Signature Variation

FLEXIBLE FORMAT SYSTEM
Alternative signature configurations that accommodate a variety of architectural scenarios allow you to choose the best fit for different forms of communication.

University Seal Usage

The Boston University seal is used for only the most formal occasions, appearing on University diplomas, formal invitations, and ceremonial documents deemed appropriate by the Office of the President. It is not downloadable and may not be used as a graphic element without permission from the Office of Marketing and Communications. Please visit www.bu.edu/brand for more information.
Font selection is a key component in the creation of successful communications. Typography should work in concert with the overall design, photography, and editorial writing to help describe and define the University brand. Since our intention is to depict Boston University as a 21st-century university that is modern, urban, confident, diverse, and dynamic, choosing the right style of type is critical. There are many fonts available, but generally we recommend that you:

USE CLEAN AND CLASSIC FACES, WITH A PREFERENCE FOR SANS-SERIF FONTS

DON’T USE FONTS THAT ARE OVERLY STYLIZED

DON’T USE BOSTON UNIVERSITY RED FOR TEXT COLOR

DON’T USE TYPE WITH DROP SHADOWS

DON’T USE OUTLINE TYPE

AVOID CONDENSING, EXCESSIVE TRACKING, OR HORIZONTAL SCALING

USE ITALICIZED STYLES SPARINGLY
Typography Primary Typeface

WHITNEY

Whitney bridges the needs of editorial typography and public signage with a single design. Its compact forms and generous x-height use space efficiently, and its ample contours and open shapes make it clearly legible under any circumstances. It is the preferred University font for external print and Web communications and may be used in any marketing materials and documents, in conjunction with other fonts. Key features of Whitney are:

ECONOMY Whitney was designed to work in crowded environments, so its shapes are especially space-efficient in text sizes.

CLARITY Whitney’s forms were shaped with both distance reading and material fabrication in mind.

LANGUAGE SUPPORT OpenType editions of Whitney contain H&FJ’s Latin-X® character set, covering more than 100 languages throughout the world—including all of Central Europe.

INDICES Whether it’s enumerating the steps in a research project or marking key places on a map, a set of circled numbers comes in handy. The Whitney Index package includes these, premade, in 16 different styles.

NUMERICS For tables and charts, each of Whitney’s styles offers a companion “Numeric” range that contains tabular figures and fractions.

Two of the 52 styles available for Whitney are represented below. For more information and to purchase, visit the website www.bu.edu/brand.

Editorial Messaging

The Office of Marketing and Communications has developed for your reference an example of voice and tone that conveys the University brand editorially (shown on the following page). If you have any questions about these editorial guidelines, please contact the director of editorial services in the Office of Creative Services at:

WWW.BU.EDU/BRAND/CONTACT
Editorial Voice and Tone

In general, the tone of Boston University communications should be vibrant, smart, bold, and authentic. The voice, or persona, for the brand should be confident, but also down-to-earth and personal. Boston University should not sound institutional, stilted, or overly authoritative. We want to speak clearly and simply, without artifice.

YOU STAND ON A STREET CORNER ON THE BU CAMPUS AND WHAT DO YOU HEAR?
EVERYTHING.

YOU HEAR THE RAUCOUS, BUZZING, ANIMATED SOUND OF THE WORLD SPINNING AROUND YOU. YOU HEAR TWENTY DIFFERENT LANGUAGES SPOKEN IN A HUNDRED DIFFERENT DIALECTS. YOU HEAR THOUGHTS YOUR BRAIN HASN’T WRAPPED ITSELF AROUND YET, IDEAS SWIMMING UPSTREAM INSTEAD OF DOWN, PHILOSOPHIES AND OPINIONS MOVING ACROSS ALL TIME ZONES AT ONCE. YOU HEAR, AND YOU SEE, A VERITABLE COOL PARADE. FROM COMM. AVE. TO THE SOUTH END, THIS SOUND IS ABOUT STUDENTS AND TEACHERS CONNECTING TO ONE ANOTHER REGARDLESS OF HOW FAR THEY CAME, HOW DIFFERENT THEIR BACKGROUNDS. YOU STAND IN THE MIDDLE OF THIS COSMOPOLITAN MELTING POT AND YOU SEE POSSIBILITIES ALL AROUND YOU. AND YOU WONDER: DID YOU CHOOSE IT? OR DID IT CHOOSE YOU?

THIS IS WHERE FASHION MEETS HIGHER EDUCATION AND IT ALL LOOKS MODERN AND COOL AND DECIDEDLY WITH-IT. WE CAPTURE BU DOCUMENTARY-STYLE ON A STAGE POPULATED BY A CAST OF 30,000 OF THE MOST WORLDLY, ENGAGED, INTERESTING INDIVIDUALS AROUND.
The Editorial Style Guide is intended to help writers and editors communicate clearly and consistently about Boston University in print and electronic media. The guide recommends ways to present information about the University and its faculty, departments, research centers, and events, and includes some grammar and punctuation tips. It addresses the most common questions that arise at BU about titles and tricky wording, but it is not a comprehensive grammar manual or dictionary. The Office of Editorial Services will continue to update the guide as new words enter the mainstream and various issues of usage and style evolve.

For more detail on capitalization, punctuation, and abbreviation, please see The Chicago Manual of Style, the University’s standard reference. For spelling, word division, and helpful usage notes, refer to Merriam-Webster’s Collegiate Dictionary. You can view these resources and a list of common proofreader’s marks on our website:

PHOTOGRAPHY
Photography style is another key component in the creation of successful brand communications. Design, typography, writing, and photography all work together to define the Boston University brand. The visual vernacular used to depict Boston University is crucial. The intention is to depict Boston University as a 21st-century university that is modern, urban, confident, diverse, and dynamic. Although your photography selections are determined by the needs of the individual project, generally we recommend images that:

REPRESENT JOURNALISTIC STYLE

APPEAR UNSTAGED AND SPONTANEOUS (WITH THE EXCEPTION OF PORTRAITS)

REFLECT THE DYNAMIC URBAN ATMOSPHERE OF THE BU CAMPUS

USE SIMPLE OR WHITE BACKGROUNDS FOR PORTRAITS

MAKE ENOUGH IMPACT TO BE USED BY THEMSELVES IN A LARGER SIZE
