Question at hand:

On February 10, 2015 at 12:32 PM, the Student Elections Commission (SEC) received the following complaint:

A complaint has been lodged against Tim Geraghty, for a violation occurring at https://www.facebook.com/timothy.geraghty on 02/08/2015.

Announced and promoted campaign outside of the designated campaigning period, violating SEC Elections Code 3.4.01, which states:

All campaigning is strictly limited to the campaign period. Any candidate who begins campaigning prior to the start of the campaign period will be deemed in violation of the EC.

a) Discussion of candidates, campaigns, or election topics in a verbal manner is allowed outside of the campaign period; however, it cannot be done in an official capacity (e.g. club meetings, club events).

b) Any promotion utilizing physical and/or electronic media is prohibited until the start of the campaign period.

Findings:

The SEC has decided to table voting on this violation until the beginning of election campaigning.
