Question at hand:

On March 31, 2016 at 11:21 AM, the Student Elections Commission (SEC) received the following complaint:

Jake attacked Laura Davis on Facebook again. He responded to her comment in a very disrespectful way. Additionally, he made the claim that their slate is the only one with 'people outside of Student Government" which is a lie. Furthermore, he claimed that they were the only ones on 'financial aid' which is again a lie.

Findings:

4/3/16

In a vote of 8-0 the SEC voted to award no violation points. In the screen shot provided it was not clear that Jake Brewer was asserting that his slate was the only one outside student government nor the only ones on financial aid. Thus the statement screenshotted was not decided to be defamatory.
