The PRC invites submissions for the 2005 PRC Member’s Exhibition. Submissions employing any photographic process are eligible. The PRC seeks a broad range of work—both traditional and non-traditional approaches to photographic imaging. The work selected by the guest juror will be showcased in an exhibition at the PRC and in the May/June newsletter.

EXHIBITION NOTES
MAY 20 – JUNE 26, 2005

JUROR
Alison Devine Nordström
Curator of Photography
George Eastman House International Museum of Photography and Film

A historian of photography, Alison Devine Nordström, Ph.D., has curated exhibitions throughout North America and in Germany, England, and Japan. Prior to joining the Eastman House in January 2004, she served as Executive Director of the New Hampshire Humanities Council and the Senior Curator/Founding Director of the Southeast Museum of Photography, where she was noted for the contemporary biennial Fresh Work and the NEA-funded project Voyages (per)Formed, which commissioned new work from contemporary artists to interpret historical photographic collections.

Widely published, Nordström has received the Ansel Adams and NEH Fellowships at the University of Arizona and City University of New York, respectively, and the William Darrah Award for excellence in writing on historical photography. For the exhibition Picturing Paradise: Colonial Photography of Samoa, which she curated and which traveled to Europe and the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Nordström earned the UNESCO Decade Label for Cultural Significance.
