MASTER OF ARTS IN TEACHING MODERN FOREIGN LANGUAGE EDUCATION
Program Requirements and Coursework

COURSEWORK IN EDUCATION (18 CREDITS):
- SED ED 500/501 Foundations of Educational Practices/Lab (6 credits)
- SED DS 502 Introduction to Adolescent Development (2 credits)
- SED SE 510 Special Education: Curriculum and Instruction (2 credits)
- SED TL 511 Methods of Teaching Modern Foreign Languages (4 credits)
- SED CT 575 General Methods of Instruction, 5-12 (4 credits)

COURSEWORK IN MODERN FOREIGN LANGUAGE AND LANGUAGE ACQUISITION (16 CREDITS):
Students complete three graduate level courses in the language of intended major at the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences and one graduate level course in language and language acquisition at the School of Education (SED LS 565).

PRACTICUM (8 CREDITS):
Students participate in a 300 hour student teaching experienced supervised by a trained classroom teacher and Boston University faculty. Students select from the following courses appropriate to the degree program and their level of concentration:

- SED TL 584/585 - Student Teaching Practicum I & II: Modern Foreign Languages, PreK-6 (6 credits) (French or Spanish) or
- SED TL 586/587 - Student Teaching Practicum I & II: Modern Foreign Languages, 5-12 (6 credits) (Arabic, French, or Spanish)
- SED BI 504 - Seminar: The Student Teaching Experience (2 credits)