Financial Assistance

Only applicants intending to enroll full-time during the academic year (Fall and Spring semesters) at the School of Education will be considered for SED General Scholarships. SED General Scholarship awards apply to tuition for the academic year only.

If you are admitted, you will receive detailed information about financial assistance including scholarships, loans, Work-Study, etc. In addition, you will receive information about how to apply for graduate assistantships. In the meantime, you are encouraged to submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). If you plan to fund all or part of your degree with loans, you will need to provide your Social Security number at some point in the process if you do not do so on this application.

Do you wish to be considered for SED General Scholarships? If you select “Yes,” your application will be considered for SED General Scholarships. No additional materials are needed for consideration. Your response to this question will not impact your admissions decision. _____ Yes _____ No

SED applicants are welcome to apply for additional scholarship opportunities. Detailed information about the following opportunities including eligibility can be found on the SED website. Please indicate which, if any, opportunities you plan to apply for by selecting the appropriate choice(s) below. Supplemental essays for consideration for these opportunities should be submitted with your application for admission unless otherwise indicated.

Boston University prohibits discrimination against any individual on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, physical or mental disability, sexual orientation, or marital, parental, or veteran status. This policy extends to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities, including admissions, financial assistance, employment, housing, athletics, and educational programs. Boston University recognizes that nondiscrimination does not ensure that equal opportunity is reality. Because of this, the University will continue to implement affirmative action initiatives which promote equal opportunity for all students, applicants, and employees. Inquiries regarding the application of this policy should be addressed to the Associate Vice President for Human Resources, 25 Buick Street, Boston, MA 02215.
