Celebrate National Student Employment Week!

April 10-16, 2011

The Student Employment Office would like to encourage the Boston University community to participate in National Student Employment Week! This is a fun opportunity for student employers to express appreciation to their student employees for the outstanding support they provide.

Need some good ideas on how to show your appreciation? Here are a few things our office enjoys doing for our student workers:

- Send all students personalized thank you notes acknowledging their hard work.
- Display a large “thank you” bulletin board/poster in a prominent office space.
- Design amusing awards or certificates for each of your students:
  - “Best Customer Service”
  - “Most Likely to Volunteer for Extra Shifts”
  - “Best Sense of Humor”...
- Provide food with pizza or “Make Your Own Sundae” parties.
- Create a large thank you note and have your staff sign it.
- Raffle off movie tickets or gift certificates.
- Play trivia or other quiz games and giving small prizes to the winners.
- Host a coloring or craft contest. Have everyone vote on the winner.
- Take your students out to lunch.
- Have themed days like “Mocktail Monday,” “Trivia Tuesday,” or “Fiesta Friday.”
