Are you on the hunt for a post-graduation full-time job or internship? Then look no further than the Fall Career Expo, happening on Wednesday, October 15 from 10:30am-3:30pm at the GSU! There are over 100 organizations attending from various industries and they’re searching for students just like you for open positions!

The BU Center for Career Development has a few tips to help you get ready for the Fall Career Expo:

1. RSVP to attend and learn more about the event at www.bu.edu/careers/about-us/calendar/eid=155312
2. Do your research: Find the positions and employers you are most interested in on BU CareerLink; review their organizational information and job descriptions.
3. Practice your elevator pitch: Be prepared to talk about how your skills and experience are a good fit for what the employer is looking for.
4. The day of: Be sure to dress professionally, bring plenty of copies of your resume, and tell your friends to come!
