

CALENDAR OF EVENTS | Fall 2015

Please note start times and locations on events!

- Fri., Sep. 18
4 - 5:30 pm*
African American Studies Opening Reception
Come meet our newest students and reconnect with friends!
Location: African American Studies Program Building, 138 Mountfort Street, Brookline
- Thu., Sep. 24
9-3 pm
Jewish, Armenian, and African Diasporic Identities Constructed and in Formation: The US and Beyond Workshop
Supported by the BU Center for the Humanities
Location: Photonics Center Colloquium Room, PHO906, 8 St. Mary's Street, Boston
- Sat., Sep. 26
6-8 pm
Alumni and Faculty Reception at African American Studies
Location: African American Studies Program Building, 138 Mountfort Street, Brookline
- Tue., Oct. 6
5 pm
All Eyes Are Upon Us – Race & Politics from Boston to Brooklyn
Jason Sokol, Associate Professor of History, University of New Hampshire
Location: African American Studies Program Building, 138 Mountfort Street, Brookline
- Tue., Oct 27
5 pm
Abolition and Racialization in Brazil (1870-1909)
Wlamyra Albuquerque, Professor of Brazilian History at the Universidade Federal da Bahia
Location: African American Studies Program Building, 138 Mountfort Street, Brookline
- Tue., Nov 3
5 pm
To Kill a Mockingbird*, Go Set a Watchman, and the 'Discovery' of Racism
John Matthews, Professor of English, Boston University
Location: African American Studies Program Building, 138 Mountfort Street, Brookline
- Sat., Nov. 7
9 am
Romanticism in the Atlantic World: A Symposium at Boston University* (BARC)
A one-day symposium organized by Joseph Rezek, Asst. Professor of English at BU. Sponsored by the BU Center for the Humanities, Studies in Romanticism, Center for the Study of Europe, Dept. of English, American and New England Studies Program, African American Studies Program, Dept. of History, and Dept. of Modern Languages and Comparative Literature.
Location: BU Castle 225 Bay State Road, Boston, MA
- Tue., Nov. 10
5 pm
American Racecraft: Race and Racism in the era of #BlackLivesMatter
Student Forum led by Jailyne Gladney (CAS '16)
Location: African American Studies Program Building, 138 Mountfort Street, Brookline
- Mon., Nov. 16
5 pm
The Alyne Case: Maternal Mortality, Intersectional Discrimination, and the Human Right to Health in Brazil
Kia Lily Caldwell, Associate Professor, Dept. of African, African American, and Diaspora Studies at University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Supported by the BU Center for the Humanities, Latin American Studies Program, as part of the "Conversations on Slavery, Memory and Culture: the Making of Contemporary Afro-Brazilian Society"
Location: Sargent College, SAR102, 635 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
- Thu., Dec. 3
5 pm
Talk by Tomás Fernández Robaina
Investigador y Profesor Titular de la Biblioteca Nacional José Martí y de la Universidad de La Habana
Location: African American Studies Program Building, 138 Mountfort Street, Brookline

For more information, please contact the African American Studies Program
138 Mountfort Street, Brookline, Massachusetts 02446
(617) 353-2795 | afam@bu.edu | www.bu.edu/afam
Become a fan on Facebook (BU_AFAM)
Or follow us on Twitter (@ BU_AFAM)