

The Politics of Protest :

Dissent, Interest Groups, and the Loyal and Disloyal Opposition in U.S. Political History

THE 6TH ANNUAL BOSTON UNIVERSITY GRADUATE STUDENT AMERICAN POLITICAL HISTORY CONFERENCE

FRIDAY, APRIL 11

PHOTONICS BUILDING, ROOM 901, 8 ST MARY'S ST.,
BOSTON, MA

9:00 AM

Registration, coffee, & breakfast

9:30–11:30 AM

PANEL 1: LEGISLATING BODIES: PUBLIC HEALTH AND PUBLIC INTEREST

Commentator: Seth Blumenthal (Boston University)
Eugene Hillsman (Princeton): Marijuana Policy in the Carter Administration

Ry Marcattilio-McCracken (Oklahoma State): *Biopolitics and Mental Health in Kansas: The Beloit Industrial Girls' School and Kathryn
O'Loughlin McCarthy, 1937-38*

Courtney Thompson (Yale): *"Directly at War with the Gallows":
Phrenological Protest against Capital Punishment in 1840s and 1850s America*

Allison Vander Broek (Boston College): *"The Other Right-to-Lifers":
The Pro-life Left in the Antiabortion Movement, 1978-1987*

11:30 AM–12:45 PM

Lunch

Attendees are invited for lunch in Rm 504, 226 Bay State Road.

12:45–2:15 PM

PANEL 2: CHALLENGING THE SYSTEM: RADICAL THOUGHT AND PROTEST FROM THE PROGRESSIVE AGE THROUGH THE 1960s

Commentator: Aaron Lecklider (UMass-Boston)
Rachel Marlana Stevens (Binghamton): *The Ties That Bind: Annis
Ford Eastman's Religious Influence on her Secular, Activist Children*

Peter Blackmer (UMass-Amherst): *Riots or Rebellions?: Community-
Based Activism and the Harlem Uprisings of 1964*

Spencer Kuchle (UMass-Amherst): *Can You Hear Me Now?: WBCN's
Progressive Radio and the White Racial Frame*

2:30–4:00 PM

PANEL 3: BUILDING AND CONTESTING THE REVOLUTIONARY SETTLEMENT

Commentator: Brendan McConville (Boston University)
Tao Wei (SUNY Stony Brook): "Such Magnanimity and Liberality Will Be Productive of Lasting Peace": Dutch Radicals, British Dissenters, and the Radical Networks of Henry Laurens in the Atlantic World, 1779-1784

Brett Palfreyman (Binghamton): The Case of the Non-Jurors in Pennsylvania

Noah Eber-Schmid (Rutgers): *Dissensus and Daniel Shays:
Perception, Democratic Politics, and Insurrection in the Regulation of 1786-1787*

4:00–5:00 PM

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

LISA MCGIRR (HARVARD UNIVERSITY)

• • • • •

SATURDAY, APRIL 12

PHOTONICS BUILDING, ROOM 901, 8 ST MARY'S ST.,
BOSTON, MA

9:00 AM

Coffee & breakfast

9:30–11:00 AM

PANEL 4: MONEY MATTERS: HARNESSING THE POWER OF THE MARKET

Commentator: Louis Ferleger (Boston University)
Ben Zdenecanovic (Yale): "The Invisible Congress:" The American Real Estate and Building Lobby, Transatlantic Housing Policy, and the Making of Free Enterprise Conservatism, 1943 - 1949

Amy Smith (University of New Hampshire): *"Ambition's Airy Hall":
Black Abolitionists, God, and Mammon in 19th century Portland,
Maine*

David Shorten (Boston University): *Fighting For A "Hand-Up, Not A Hand-Out": The National Business League and Black Business
Advocacy, 1960-1969*

11:00 AM–12:30 PM

PANEL 5: SENDING A MESSAGE TO WASHINGTON: RELATIONS WITH THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT IN THE 19TH CENTURY

Commentator: Nina Silber (Boston University)
Jonathan Crider (Temple): The Emergence of Factional Politics in Frontier Florida, 1821-1827

Glen Olson (CUNY): Dysfunctional Empire: The Utah War and Sectional Politics

Sarah Bowman (Yale): *Of Vultures and Vindication: Reconstruction
Narratives of the North*

12:30 PM

Lunch & Announcement of 2014 Outstanding Graduate Student Paper Prize