F. Test Policy^a

Boston University has decided to remain test optional for students applying for admission through fall 2025 and spring 2026. Our test optional policy applies to all undergraduate schools and colleges at BU, as well as all scholarship programs. While the admissions process at Boston University has always been holistic and decisions have never been solely based on one single factor, such as an SAT or ACT score, the move to test optional over the past two years has improved our process by adding considerable weight to the important qualities and characteristics that focus more on you and your academic and personal accomplishments. Applicants will have the ability to indicate whether they would like us to consider their standardized test scores when they apply.

International students will still be required to submit the TOEFL, IELTS, or DuoLingo English Test* as the primary means for evaluating English-language proficiency.

^a Requirements for the TOEFL and IELTS tests are available on our admissions website (www.bu.edu/admissions).

TOEFL and IELTS Tests

The Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) is required of any student for whom English is not the native or first language. Students who are most competitive for admission will have a composite score of at least 90-100 and minimum scores of 20 in each section. The average TOEFL score for students admitted to Boston University is 107. The Board of Admissions looks closely at the score for each section as well as for consistency across all subscores within each single language proficiency test.

IELTS: In lieu of the TOEFL exam, you may submit the International English Language Testing System (IELTS). A score of 7 or higher will also satisfy BU's English Language proficiency requirement for all programs. Learn more on the IELTS website.

CFA School of Music Notes: Candidates are required to audition for admission. Check College of Fine Arts website at www.bu.edu/cfa for audition schedules. Candidates for the Theory and Composition program must audition and present a portfolio.

CFA School of Theatre Arts Notes: Candidates for the Acting and Theatre Studies Programs must audition for admission. Candidates for the Design, Production and Stage Management Programs must present a portfolio in an interview with the faculty. Check the College of Fine Arts website at www.bu.edu/cfa for audition and portfolio preparation schedules.

CFA School of Visual Arts Notes: Candidates are required to submit a portfolio. Check College of Fine Arts website at www.bu.edu/cfa for instructions.

The BU Hub, our groundbreaking new general education program, embraces the breadth of disciplines taught at BU, the social and intellectual richness of our residential campus, and our location in a vibrant, urban community to prepare our graduates for today's interconnected, global, and fast-paced world.

You'll gain the knowledge, skills, and habits of mind needed to thrive in your personal, professional, and civic life. Our general education program is integrated with our majors and minors, so you take courses that interest you while exploring areas ranging from global citizenship to scientific and social inquiry to ethical reasoning.

The Hub is robust in its options for experiential learning and co-curriculars, and its signature feature, the BU Cross-College Challenge (XCC), offers an opportunity to work with a team of students and faculty drawn from across our different schools and colleges. The best part? You get to pick your own pathway to discover your passions.
