Program start date (e.g., Fall 2023) _____

Students must earn a minimum of 48 course credits with grades no lower than B- in graduate-level coursework per the Bulletin (see Bulletin archives for pre-Fall 2023 curriculum) and are expected to declare either Dissertation or Recital Track by the beginning of the second year of study. Refer to the Graduate Student Handbook for the full complement of policies and procedures.

- 18 credits of applied lessons, taken over 6 semesters of study. Students must register for hour-long lessons (CFA ML 5xx odd-numbered courses)
- 4 semesters of MP 600 Orchestra and/or MP 602 Wind Ensemble. Note: students must register for ensembles as assigned in their seating audition, in each of their first four semesters of study
- If a student is required, per the results of the proficiency entrance exams in theory and musicology, to take MT 401 and/or MH 401 review courses (2 credits each), they must take the course(s) their first semester and pass them with at least a B- before advancing to graduate work in these areas. These review courses do not count for graduate academic credit
- 3 credits in music theory courses, MT 600-level or above (for example, MT 601 or 602)
- 6 credits in musicology courses, MH 600-level or above
- CFA MT 701 Doctoral Proseminar: Skills (3 credits) – Typically taken in Fall of second year
- CFA MT 702 Doctoral Proseminar: Analysis (3 credits) – Typically taken in Spring of second year
- CFA MU 995 Dissertation (3 credits)
- 12 credits of electives:
 - Students can choose from grad courses (500 level and above) with SoM prefixes MU, ME, MP, MH, MT MP 600 orchestra, MP 602 wind ensemble, and MP 608 chamber music will count towards elective credits, as will additional graduate courses in MT and MH taken beyond the required credits
 - MET graduate classes in Arts Administration will satisfy elective credits
 - Applied lessons may be taken for up to 4 credits per semester instead of 3. Any additional lesson credit(s) beyond the required 18 would satisfy elective credit, but no more than 5 credits of extra applied lessons may be applied towards electives. Students must submit a course substitution form to request use of additional lesson credits for elective credit
- Students must register for 7 credits minimum to a maximum of 11.5 credits per semester for full-time status
- Refer to the Bulletin for recital requirements and qualifying exams
- Reading proficiency is required in one language, chosen from German, French, and Italian. Students may demonstrate proficiency in a foreign language by passing its corresponding reading course at the Graduate School of Arts & Sciences: GRS LG 621, GRS LF 621, or GRS LI 621. Students may also satisfy the requirement by passing a foreign language examination, administered once each semester by the School of Music
- After a student has finished coursework, MU 995, and is completing their dissertation, qualifying exams and/or recitals, they must register for continuing studies MU 996 each semester through graduation, regardless if they are also taking applied lessons
- All students MUST apply to graduate before their final semester of study, complete all degree program requirements, and earn a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.00 to be awarded a degree per CFA Graduation Policy.
- Useful resources: Graduate Student Advising Tools and Resources; Applied and Performance Studies handbook; and Professor Jason Yust, Director of Graduate Studies, jyust@bu.edu
