

Records Review & Retention

Review of Approved Driver motor vehicle records and training will be conducted every two years. Motor vehicle records should be retained for three years.

Reporting of Motor Vehicle Driving Infractions

It is the responsibility of each approved driver to notify their supervisor or program director of any motor vehicle infractions resulting in points assessed to their motor vehicle record as well as any damage to vehicles.