

U.S. Mission in a Time of Pandemic

Friday, March 19, 2021
9:30-10:45am

Join us for a panel of missional pastors discussing mission and ministry in the United States today. This event is sponsored by the Center for Global Christianity and Mission.

To register and receive a Zoom link, please send an email to:
bmcarlso@bu.edu

The Rev. Tyler Sit is the planter of New City Church, a church that focuses on environmental justice. He is a lover of Minnesota, a United Methodist pastor, and the son of a Chinese immigrant. Tyler earned a BS in Communication Studies from Boston University and a MDiv from Candler School of Theology, and he has lived in four continents. He has formal training as a prison chaplain, community organizer, and social entrepreneur. Sit is the author of Staying Awake: The Gospel for Changemakers, available now for preorder.

Dominic J.S. Mejia (STH '20) is the outgoing Director of University Student and Young Adult at Harvard-Epworth UMC in Cambridge. An Ohioan sojourning in New England, he will be commissioned as a provisional elder in the West Ohio Conference of the UMC in May 2021. During his time at Harvard-Epworth, Dom has sought to cultivate a grace-filled community of young adults using practical theology and Wesley's General Rules. He is the co-founder of 40Form, an online vocational discernment curriculum for individuals and communities.

The Rev. Britta Meiers Carlson is an ordained Lutheran pastor and PhD student in practical theology at BU School of Theology. Britta spent five years as the founder and pastor of Iglesia Nuevo Amanecer, a Spanish language ministry in East Boston, MA that partners with neighbors who strive for justice related to housing displacement, immigration status, addiction, and poverty. She has a BA in History and Spanish from Concordia College in Moorhead, MN and a MDiv from Luther Seminary in Saint Paul, MN.