

SUMMER INSTITUTE 2022

GRIEF, HOPE AND RESILIENCE AMID THE PANDEMIC

18-22 JULY 2022 (MONDAY-FRIDAY)

Venue: Cambridge Centre for Christianity Worldwide,
Westminster College, Cambridge CB3 0AA, UK

Who we are: our Summer Institute 2022 is organised by the Cambridge Centre for Christianity Worldwide, in collaboration with the Rose Castle Foundation (RCF) and the Theological Education in the Anglican Communion project (TEAC).

We will welcome: theological students, educators, researchers and any Christian interested in learning about Christianity in other parts of God's world.

We will focus on: how the Covid-19 pandemic is impacting churches and their communities, locally and worldwide, and share examples of resilience in the face of challenge.

We will explore:

- Stories of suffering and grief
- Examples of resilience, hope and faith
- Biblical and theological insights

We will listen attentively: to God and to each other while we consider working together to create better societies built on care, compassion and justice, as we live through this pandemic.

We will worship and eat together daily, have opportunities to see the Centre's renowned library and archives, and have time to discover the joys of Cambridge.

Do join us. Details about the application process, forms and finances will be available in early January 2022.

INTRODUCING THE WORLD CHRISTIANITY SUMMER INSTITUTE

The CCCW is establishing a week-long annual residential Summer Institute on the theme 'World Christianity and Global Challenges' to take place in Cambridge every year. The first Institute will be from 18-22 July 2022.

It is a wonderful opportunity for Christians from the Global North and South to gather together and to learn about Christianity in the other parts of the world. It is also an opportunity to build relationships as World Christians together.

Each Summer Institute will deal with a challenge focusing on the following:

IMPACT:

- How does the chosen challenge affect Christians locally and globally?
- How does it impact wider societies in which we live?

RESPONSE:

- The various ways in which Christians and Christian communities respond to it.
- The strengths and shortcomings of the responses.

ACTION:

- What insights can Christians from other contexts learn from each other? How can these shape Christian mission, ministry and education in local contexts?
- In what ways can Christians, as a global community, together with our neighbours from other faiths and traditions, work to create better societies?

The Summer Institute will have the participants from diverse geographical backgrounds, from different denominations, and age groups. It will bring together theological students, educators, researchers as well as any Christian interested in learning about Christianity in another part of the world.

There will be talks on the chosen challenge, but much of the time will be spent for conversations – both formal in groups and informal – and on workshops and historical tours related to World Christianity.

Please see overleaf for the information about the 2022 Summer Institute.
