THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Prelude

Easter Acclamation and Greeting

The Dean:           The Lord be with you.
People:             And also with you.
The Dean:           Alleluia! Christ is risen.
People:             Christ is risen indeed! Alleluia!

✠ Introit           Cry out and shout

Knut Nystedt (1915–2014)

Cry out and shout, ye people of God!
The Lord is strength and song!
Cry out and shout, ye people of God!
Cry out and shout, Alleluia!

Isaiah 12, adapted

Text: John Mason Neale (1818-1866)

Tune: ST. KEVIN, Arthur S. Sullivan (1842-1900)

✦ Collect (in unison)

Almighty and everlasting God, who in the Paschal mystery established the new covenant of reconciliation: Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ's Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

✘ Invitation to the Lord's Table

The Dean: Christ our Lord invites to his table all who love him, who earnestly repent of their sin
and seek to live in peace with one another.
Therefore, let us confess our sin before God and one another.

✘ Confession of Sin

All: Merciful God we confess that we have not loved you with our whole heart.
We have failed to be an obedient church. we have broken your law,
We have not done your will, we have rebelled against your love,
we have not loved our neighbors,
and we have not heard the cry of the needy.
Forgive us, we pray.
Free us for joyful obedience,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Dean: Hear the good news:
Christ died for us while we were yet sinners;
that proves God's love towards us.
In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

People: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

All: Glory to God. Amen. Alleluia!

✘ Exchange of Peace

The Dean: The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you always!

People: And also with you.

All may exchange signs and words of God's peace.

✘ Hymn

Al - le - lu - ia! Lord and Sav - ior: o - pen now your sav - ing word.

S205a

Let it burn like fire with-in us; speak un - til our hearts are stirred.

Al - le - lu - ia! Lord, we sing for the good news that you bring.

Lesson Acts 4:32–35

Lector: A lesson from the Acts of the Apostles, chapter 4, verses 32–35:

Now the whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common. With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them, for as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold. They laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Anthem I sat down under his shadow Edward Bairstow (1874–1946)

I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste.
He brought me to the banqueting house, and his banner over me was love.

Song of Solomon 2:3–4

Lesson 1 John 1:1–2:2

Lector: A lesson from the first epistle of John, chapter 1, verse 1, through chapter 2, verse 2:

We declare to you what was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life—this life was revealed, and we have seen it and testify to it, and declare to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us—we declare to you what we have seen and heard so that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. We are writing these things so that our joy may be complete. This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him there is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him while we are walking in darkness, we lie and do not do what is true; but if we walk in the light as he himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he who is faithful and just will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 133

The antiphon is sung twice, first by choir alone, and then by choir and congregation.

♪ Antiphon (sung by all)

The image shows two staves of musical notation for the antiphon. The first staff is a bass clef line with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature. It contains the melody for the first line of the antiphon. The second staff is a treble clef line with the same key signature and time signature, containing the melody for the second line. The lyrics are written below the notes: "U - nite us, Lord, u - nite us" on the first line and "by your ev - er - last - ing love." on the second line. The notes are simple, mostly quarter and eighth notes, with some rests.

Cantor: How very good and pleasant it is when kindred live together in unity!

People: *It is like the precious oil on the head,
running down upon the beard,
on the beard of Aaron,
running down over the collar of his robes.*

Cantor: It is like the dew of Hermon, which falls on the mountains of Zion.

People: For there the LORD ordained his blessing, life forevermore. ♪

✕ Gloria Patri from 'Magnificat in D major'

George Dyson (1883–1964)

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

✠ Gospel Lesson    John 20:19–31

Lector:                    The Holy Gospel according to St. John, chapter 20, verses 19–31:

People:                    Glory to you, O Lord.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe." A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

Lector:                    The Gospel of the Lord.

People:                    Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Offertory Sentences

At the Offertory Greater love hath no man

John Ireland (1879–1962)

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. (Song of Solomon 8:7)
Love is strong as death. (Song of Solomon 8:6) Greater Love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. (John 15:13)

Who His own Self bare our sins in His own Body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness. (1 Peter 2:24) Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified, in the Name of the Lord Jesus; (1 Corinthians 6:11) Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, That ye should shew forth the praises of Him who hath called you our of darkness into His marvelous light. (1 Peter 2:9)

I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. (Romans 12:1)

✘ Presentation of the Gifts (sung by all)

FESTIVAL EUCHARIST

✦ The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them up to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you,
Almighty God, creator of heaven and earth.
You formed us in your image and breathed into us the breath of life.
When we turned away, and our love failed, your love remained steadfast.
You delivered us from captivity, made covenant to be our sovereign God, brought us to a land flowing with milk and honey,
and set before us the way of life.

And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

✦ Sanctus and Benedictus (sung by all)

Patrick T. Waters (b. 1983)

✦ Words of Institution

Celebrant: Holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ.
By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection

Celebrant:

you gave birth to your Church,
delivered us from slavery to sin and death,
and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit.
By your great mercy we have been born anew to a living hope through the resurrection of your Son from the dead and to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading.

Once we were no people, but now we are your people, declaring your wonderful deeds in Christ,
who called us out of darkness into his marvelous light.
When the Lord Jesus ascended, he promised to be with us always,
in the power of your Word and Holy Spirit.
On the night in which he gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said:
"Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me."

When the supper was over he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said:
"Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

On the day you raised him from the dead
he was recognized by his disciples in the breaking of the bread, and in the power of your Holy Spirit your Church has continued in the breaking of the bread and the sharing of the cup.

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ,
we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving
as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Sung by all:

Christ has died; — Christ is ris - en; Christ will come a - gain.

Celebrant: Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here,
and on these gifts of bread and wine.
Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood.

By your Spirit make us one with Christ,
one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory, and we feast at his heavenly banquet.
Through you Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in your holy Church, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever.

All: Amen.

✠ The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant: And now, with the confidence of children of God, let us pray:

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

✠ Agnus Dei (sung by the choir)

Lamb of God, who takest away the sin of the world, have mercy upon us.
Lamb of God, who takest away the sin of the world, have mercy upon us.
Lamb of God, who takest away the sin of the world, grant us peace.

Distribution of the Elements

Marsh Chapel at Boston University is an interdenominational faith community, and all are welcome and invited to participate in Communion today. If you do not feel comfortable receiving the elements of Communion, you may, if you wish, come forward and receive a blessing instead. Simply let the server know when you approach. If you are unable to come forward, we will come to you with Communion or for a blessing—just raise your hand after the others have finished. We provide both wine (pulpit side) and an alcohol-free grape juice (lectern side). Gluten-free bread is available upon request.

Motet

Ego sum panis vivus

Juan Esquivel (c. 1560–c. 1625)

Ego sum panis vivus,
 qui de caelo descendi.
 Si quis manducaverit ex hoc pane,
 vivet in aeternum. Alleluia.

*I am the living bread which came down from heaven.
 Whosoever shall eat of this bread shall live forever. Alleluia.*

John 6:58

Prayer of Thanksgiving (in unison)

Eternal God, we give you thanks for this holy mystery in which you have given yourself to us.
 Grant that we may go into the world in the strength of your Spirit,
 to give ourselves for others,
 In the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.
 Amen.
