

Facilities, Equipment and Other Resources

BOSTON UNIVERSITY

PI Laboratory: PI XXX is an XXX Professor of XXX at Boston University which provides office space for the PI, including computing equipment and software.

Computing Equipment: Dr. XXX's lab will provide on-campus computing equipment and software for database management and data analysis. Boston University will provide IT support.

SUPPORT IN FIELD

Field Equipment: XXX has maintained an active research program at the field site in XXX since 20XX. Many elements for field research have already been procured including a satellite phone and much of the field equipment.

XXX Research Center: The XXX Research Center is centrally located in XXX, XXX the main administrative town in the area. The research center's aim is to facilitate scientific research in XXX. As part of its mission, it provides assistance with obtaining research permits, and provides access to facilities including a library, meetings rooms, and lodging for affiliated researchers.