

UA580 THE BOSTON EXPERIENCE

Role of Architecture in Creating a Sense of Place

City Planning & Urban Affairs
Department of Applied Social Science
Metropolitan College

This course offers students ways to observe how cities are experienced. While the course will cover the foundational semantics of architectural concepts, it will focus equally on developing the language and lens through which students will begin to understand the impact of the intended and unintended uses of architecture at different scales.

Summer I 2016
Mon & Wed 6-9pm, CAS 21
