

TIMOTHY W. DIGGINS
12 West Cedar Street
Boston, Massachusetts 02108
(617) 951-7389
Email: tdiggins@bu.edu

Work Experience:

ROPES & GRAY, Boston, Massachusetts -- Partner, 1993 – 2023, in the firm's corporate department, representing clients in a diverse domestic and international financial services practice. Clients included sovereign wealth funds, asset managers, banks, mutual funds, insurance companies, and endowments. Served as co-chair of the firm's Sovereign and Governmental Investors Practice Group and Derivatives and Financial Products Practice Group.

LOVELL WHITE DURRANT, London, England (1991) -- On secondment from Ropes & Gray to gain experience with UK/European financial services industry and regulation. Worked with European collective investment schemes (including UCITS), Eurobond issuers, banks, and investment advisers.

CHIEF JUDGE ANDREW A. CAFFREY (D. Mass.). Law Clerk, 1983 – 1984.

Education:

UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO LAW SCHOOL, Chicago, Illinois

J.D. 1983

Joseph Henry Beale Prize for legal research and writing

Grant recipient from the Deutsche Akademische Austauschdienst to study in Bonn and Berlin, West Germany (Summer 1981)

COLLEGE OF THE HOLY CROSS, Worcester, Massachusetts

A.B., summa cum laude, Classics, 1980

Phi Beta Kappa, Conniff Award for highest mark in the study of Latin classics

Community/Personal:

Massachusetts Institute of Technology – Served as guest lecturer, Sloan School of Management (as to legal aspects of investment advisory business, private and public funds, and derivatives transactions).

President and Trustee, The Boston Athenaeum

Co-Chair, Board of Overseers, Brigham and Women's Hospital

Trustee, A Far Cry Orchestra

Trustee Emeritus, The Boston Ballet

Married (Deborah J. Coleman), with 2 children (ages 26 and 24).

Languages: Latin, Ancient Greek. Working knowledge of French and German.