

Boston University College of Communication

640 Commonwealth Avenue
Boston, Massachusetts 02215
617-353-3450
bu.edu/com

College of Communication Points of Interest

1

WTBU

- Student-run radio station
- Anyone can get involved with the station; students must intern for one semester and then they will be eligible to apply for their own show
- Students can also work in the stations promotions or management departments

2

AdLab

- AdLab is the oldest and largest student operated advertising agency in the world.
- Students work in account teams creating real ads for real clients.
- Provides top experience for careers in advertising by industry executives

3

Ezratti HD Lab

- Lab created and updated due to the generosity of the Ezratti family on behalf of Maya Ezratti, who graduated with a B.S. in Journalism in 1998.
- Lab is outfitted with Mac desktop computers, Final Cut Pro, Avid and Adobe Creative Suite

4

Television Studios

- For Film, TV, Broadcast Journalism and butv10 students
- Studio West: control room the permanent set of Neighborhood Network News
- Studio East: production studio with Chroma Key background and prop room
- Student-run Telly Award winning TV network: www.butv10.com
- If doors to studios are locked, ask in Television Production Services to be let in

5

Mac Lab, room 214

- Classroom available to all COM students
- Software includes: Adobe Creative Suite, Final Cut Pro, Avid, Microsoft Office and more
- COM students do not need to purchase their own software and can use any of the Mac or PC labs in the building

6

Production Studio

- Studio for production students that houses 200 amp power, light grid, seamless backdrop and lighting control dimmer board

7

Career Development

- Provides current listings of job and internship opportunities in communication fields through an online database
- Offers resume and cover letter assistance
- Career Development offers a wide variety of career events including job/internship fairs, career seminars and networking events

8

Undergraduate Affairs

- Undergraduate students can schedule an appointment to meet with an academic counselor regarding course requirements, study abroad, selecting a major, etc.
- All freshmen are assigned a COM Ambassador, an upperclassman who answers questions and plans events to acclimate incoming students to COM, BU and Boston

9

Graduate Affairs

- Advises graduate students on academic schedules, scholarships, financial aid and assistantships
- Plans graduate student activities
- Point of contact for prospective graduate students to the College of Communication

10

Field Production Services

- COM Students come to Field Production Services to check out their field equipment. Students choose from a full compliment of camera, sound, lighting and grip equipment
- Permissions for equipment rental are class-based

11

Writing Center

- Free and available to any COM student in need of help in the writing process
- Staffed by trained graduate students from each division of the College
- Students can make appointments online or stop by during walk-in hours.

12

PRLab

- Award-winning, full-service, student-run PR agency
- Students meet as account teams or with clients, which range from non-profits to commercial enterprises.
- PRLab creates self-motivated, professional practitioners in a practical learning environment

If you would like more information about the COM undergraduate curriculum, please see www.bu.edu/com/resources/current-students/undergraduate/forms.

To contact COM Undergraduate Affairs email comugrad@bu.edu

If you would like more information about the graduate programs, please visit www.bu.edu/edu/com/resources/current-students/graduate.

To contact COM Graduate Affairs email comgrad@bu.edu

BOSTON UNIVERSITY