

Film & Television Minor

Pre-Requisite:

Students must complete COM FT 201 with the appropriate grade (C or better) BEFORE being eligible to declare a Film & Television minor. COM FT 201 is open to second term first-year students. Students will declare the Film & Television minor through their home school/college AFTER receiving the minimum grade in COM FT 201.

All courses listed below have a pre-requisite of sophomore standing unless otherwise noted.

24 required units in total (not including COM FT 201) (All courses have a COM prefix unless otherwise noted):

FT 250 Understanding Film OR FT 303
Understanding Television

FT 310 Storytelling for Film & Television
(required, pre-req First-Year Writing Seminar)

16 additional units from the COM FT Department

All COM FT courses to meet these 16 additional units must be 300-level or higher.

Notes:

- All 24 required units must be completed with a minimum grade of a C- or better.
- Students must meet any course pre-requisites to be eligible to take a course
- We do our best to keep course pre-requisites noted on this sheet current, but the most up to date pre-requisite listings are on MyBU Student.
- Courses taken outside Boston University cannot count toward a COM minor.
- CAS CI courses cannot count toward a Film & Television minor
- COM does not allow for any substitutions or exceptions to the minor requirements.
