

The Marcy Syms Community Service Fellowship in Communication

Funding Available for Female COM Students Pursuing Nonprofit, Community-Based Internships

About

The Sy Syms Foundation was established in 1985 by retail entrepreneur and humanitarian Sy Syms whose mission was to support education. A founding trustee, Marcy Syms, has served as President of the Sy Syms Foundation since 1995. Marcy has been instrumental in developing many of the grant relationships made possible by her late father's generosity.

As President, Marcy Syms has made fulfilling and furthering the Foundation's mission to support education, science, and the arts a focus of her career as a social entrepreneur and has awarded more than $30,000,000 to worthy organizations that work towards making a better life for all of us.

Available Funding

Two women students studying at the College of Communication who are currently pursuing a Summer 2025 internship in the nonprofit sector, or other community-based opportunities, are eligible to receive a stipend from The Sy Syms Foundation of $5,000.

How to Apply

- Submit the following documents to Nichelle Cross nicross@bu.edu by Thursday April 17th, 2025
 - ☐ Offer letter
 - ☐ Resume
 - ☐ Cover letter describing your internship and interest in nonprofit/community work

Legal First Name: _____

Last Name: _____

Preferred Name: _____

BUID#: _____

BU Email address: _____

External (non-BU) email address: _____

Cell Phone Number: _____

Major(s): _____

Undergraduate or Graduate student: _____

Graduation date: _____

LinkedIn URL: _____