The Dallas Morning News

The Internship:

- The internship program at The Dallas Morning News is one of the best in the country. We pride ourselves on treating our interns like full-time staffers from their first day, giving them crucial experience and insight into a journalist's career and daily responsibilities.
- Newsroom members and panelists from other organizations lead training sessions on critical skills for journalists in an ever-changing industry. Interns also have the chance to interact with members of senior leadership through one-on-one chats and a lunch with the publisher.
- Interns will be held to the same journalistic standards, quality guidelines and ethics as full-time staffers, including adherence to professional decorum in dress, promptness and courtesy.
- Interns are expected to have a basic knowledge of AP style. The ability to speak another language would be helpful, and familiarity with digital media is required.
- Previous daily newspaper experience is preferred

Schedule:

The standard workweek is Monday-Friday, but some weekend, night and holiday shifts may be required. The sports internship takes place in the fall. Summer interns are expected to attend training sessions and other events. Interns who need to work remotely will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Application Instructions

1. Submit the following in one pdf document to Nichelle Cross nicross@bu.edu by Friday, February 20th.
2. Resume.
3. Cover letter.
4. Include 3 reporting samples not behind a paywall.
5. Cover Sheet (page 1)

Compensation: Students will receive $10,000 from the Elizabeth Margaritis Butson Internship Fund. Compensation will be given to students in two lump sums, $5,000 at the start of the internship and $5,000 upon completion. COM Career Services Internship Coordinator will reach out with paperwork to manage this process.
