

The Boston Globe

And

THE COM FELLOWS FUND

Funding Available for COM Students Pursuing Internships in Media

About the COM Fellow Fund

The COM Fellows Fund was established in 2020 by a generous COM alumnus looking to support undergraduate students in their pursuit of high-quality internships at media organizations (e.g., broadcast, production, or news organizations). Rising juniors and senior students pursuing internships during the summer are eligible to apply for funds and distinction as COM Fellows. The COM Fellows committee maintains complete discretion in selecting students for each fellowship with qualifications and criteria set forth by the generous COM alumnus.

Available Funding

SUMMER 2027 Up to ten COM students who will be rising as juniors or seniors during summer 2027 are eligible to apply to receive $12,000 each through their own previously established internships or internship partnerships formed between COM and high-level media organizations throughout spring 2027. Please note, students are only eligible to receive COM Fellows Funding once during their time at BU.

2027 COM Fellows Boston Globe Summer Intern: Multimedia

Internship period: 12 weeks (June-August 2027)

Hours: 37.5 hours per week

Schedule: Some nights and weekends possible Interns work holidays and are scheduled to work one weekend day per week

Location: 53 State Street Boston Mass.

Qualifications:

- Rising as juniors or seniors during summer 2027 pursuing a major at BU in the College of Communications.
- MUST have valid driver's license and be comfortable driving.

About the Internship:

The Boston Globe internship is an opportunity for college students to gain practical journalism experience at a dynamic and growing major news organization focused on a digital future while firmly planted in the journalism skills and values that have kept the Globe a respected and necessary source of information and entertainment for 150 years.

The Globe is seeking intern candidates with demonstrated experience in podcasting, or video work. Interns work beside newsroom veterans, produce independent and original work, collaborate with teams on projects, and leave the Globe with a higher level of experience and an impressive portfolio.

Some night and/or weekend work may be necessary.

About the position:

Depending on the applicant, the position would include several areas of multimedia including video, tv, social media, audience and/or audio. The position will be a heavily video-focused position that could also include producing original work and work on team projects with the Globe's TV, social media/audience and/or audio teams.

How to apply for the 2027 COM Fellows Boston Globe Summer Intern: Multimedia

Fill out the COM Fellows Application Form
no later than Sunday, November 1st.

- ☐ Application Form
- ☐ Resume
- ☐ 3-5 samples of multimedia news content (no paywalls)
- ☐ Up to 3 References with titles, phone numbers, and email addresses
- ☐ Cover letter