

AUGUST COGNITIVE KIT CROSSWORD PUZZLE

ACROSS

2. According to McKee et al. (2023), the study of young athletes allows insight into the earliest ____ of RHI-induced neuropathologic injury and CTE
5. McKee et al. (2023) found that young brain donors exposed to repetitive head impacts were highly ____ regardless of CTE status
6. According to the Brain Injury Association of America, ____ are not only a problem for athletes
7. According to McKee et al. (2023), repetitive head impacts can result in symptomatic concussions and the much more frequent, ____ injuries that are asymptomatic

DOWN

1. According to the Brain Injury Association of America, a concussion is a form of mild ____ brain injury (TBI)
3. CDC's HEADS UP program provides resources for medical professionals and trainings for school and sports ____
4. According to the Brain Injury Association of America, a clear CT or MRI does not ____ the possibility that you have a brain injury
8. CDC's HEADS UP program provides resources on concussion basics, signs and ____, and more