

Boston University Institute on Culture, Religion & World Affairs
The Frederick S. Pardee School of Global Studies, The Department of Anthropology and The Luce Foundation present

Whither and Whence the Anthropology of Christianity? A Brief Report on the State of the Field

Brian Howell

Professor in the Department of Anthropology, Wheaton College

Thursday, October 16 at 4pm
121 Bay State Road, 1st Floor

Dr. Howell is one of the most respected American researchers in the anthropology of Christianity today. He teaches on global Christianity, culture theory, and inequality, as well as on anthropology and popular culture. His research interests are in the intersections of culture, globalization and Christianity. Dr. Howell's books include Introduction to Cultural Anthropology: A Christian Perspective (Baker Academic, 2011), and Christianity in the Local Context: Southern Baptist in the Philippines (Palgrave Macmillan, 2008).

Institute on Culture, Religion, and World Affairs

10 Lenox Street | Brookline, MA 02446; 617-353-9050 | cura@bu.edu