FACULTY/STAFF
What would you like to report
1. Sexual Harassment or sexual assault
Would you like your complaint to remain confidential?
No
Yes
Off-campus law enforcement
On-campus reporting: Title IX office, Boston University Police, Equal Opportunity Office, Human Resources
Off Campus Counseling, Advocacy Resources, and Legal Resources
On Campus: Faculty & Staff Assistance Office, Office of the Ombuds, or University Chaplains
2. Gender based harassment or discrimination
Does the complaint fall under Sexual misconduct?
Yes
No
Go to Section 1 (sexual harassment or sexual assault)
On-campus reporting: Equal Opportunity Office, Human Resources, Dean's office, or Union if your case is covered by a collective bargaining agreement
3. Racial discrimination or bias
Off-Campus (emergencies or immediate threats to life or property): Boston Police, 911
On-campus Reporting resources: One's manager, Office of the Ombuds, Human Resources representative, reporting serious incidents through the University's confidential mechanism, Ethics Point, and, in cases where the employee believes that bias has become discrimination, the Equal Opportunity Office, Boston University Police (for emergencies or immediate threats to life or property)
4. Disability discrimination
On-campus reporting: Equal Opportunity Office, Human Resources, Dean's office, Union if covered by a collective bargaining agreement
Off-Campus Emergencies or immediate threats to life or property: Boston Police. Other instances: Americans with Disabilities Act Complaint Form
5. Workplace violence
Does the complaint fall under Sexual misconduct?
Yes
No
Go to Section 1 (sexual harassment or sexual assault)
Would you like to report imminent threats, violent incidents, or dangerous or emergency situations?
No
Yes
Would you like to report verbal abuse, perceived intimidation, harassment, or other non-emergency situations?
Call 911, Boston University Police, or hit the button on a blue emergency call box
Contact human resources, BU Office of the Ombuds, or Boston University Police