

Boston University, College of Engineering
ENG ME 420: Supply Chain Engineering

Course Information: Fall 2022

Meeting Details:

Monday and Wednesday 4:30 pm - 6:15 pm
PHO 202, 8 St. Mary's Street

Instructor:

Professor Perkins
Office: 15 St. Mary's Street, Room 146
Phone: (617) 353-4991
Email: perkins@bu.edu

Course Website:

Blackboard Learn

Office Hours:

Wednesday 3:00 pm - 4:00 pm (email me to confirm) and by appointment

Textbook:

David Simchi-Levi et al., Designing and Managing the Supply Chain (3rd ed.)
McGraw-Hill, 2008

Homework Assignments:

Homework assignments will be 30% of the course grade. Assigned (approximately) every fortnight.

Exams:

Midterm worth 25% of course grade. Midterm date: TBD
Final worth 30% of course grade. Final date: TBD

Attendance and Participation:

Attendance/Participation in class will be 15% of course grade.

Boston University, College of Engineering
ENG ME 420: Supply Chain Engineering

Course Topics: Fall 2022

- Introduction
- Inventory Management and Risk Pooling
- Network Planning
- Supply Contracts
- Smart Pricing
- Distribution Strategies
- Value of Information
- Customer Value
- Risk Management
- Strategic Alliances
- Procurement and Outsourcing Strategies
- Coordinated Product and Supply Chain Design

Tools for Supply Chain Engineering

- Value Stream Mapping
- RFID Chips and GPS
- Inventory Optimization
- Cellular Organization
- Global and Domestic Outsourcing
- Continuous Costing
- Product Visioning
- Product and Process Modularity