

BU's Equal Opportunity Office
Presents Title IX Team
Training, 11/4/21, 1-3 pm

Session 1, 1:00-1:30pm
Judith Linden, MD, SANE

Judith Linden, MD, SANE,
Executive Vice-Chair,
Department of Emergency Medicine
Boston Medical Center
Professor, Boston University School of Medicine

Learn what happens when a complainant presents to the ED acutely after an assault and how a team-based approach is used to provide compassionate, trauma-informed care.

- Reasons to seek medical care in the ED, including:
 - STI/HIV/pregnancy prevention
 - Evaluation for potential injuries
 - Support and guidance
 - Evidence collection, toxicology testing
 - How to preserve evidence, the time limits, and options for evidence collection and police reporting
 - Overview of the process for evidence collection
 - MA SANE Program expertise and training

Session 2, 1:30-2:15pm
BUPD & OGC

Sheila O'Leary,
Associate General
Counsel, Office of the General
Counsel

Lt. Daniel Healy,
Boston University
Police Department

Learn how Boston University coordinates its Clery compliance with the Clery Act and supports community members.

- What is the Clery Act
- What is a Campus Security Authority
- Reporting obligations
- How to identify dating violence, stalking, and reportable offenses
- Protective Orders in MA
- BU's Annual Security Report
- When to call BUPD
- When to refer to BUPD

Title IX

Session 3, 2:15pm-3:00pm
The Center for Psychiatric Rehabilitation Center

Dori Hutchinson,
Executive Director,
Sc.D, the Center for Psychiatric
Rehabilitation

Larry Kohn, M.S.
Director of Development, the Center for Psychiatric
Rehabilitation

Learn how the Center for Psychiatric Rehabilitation supports community members.

- Supporting Complainants, Respondents and participants in Title IX Processes
- Overview of wellness coaching
- Ensuring equitable treatment for the parties