

The Center for the Study of Europe, in cooperation with the Center for the Study of Asia and the Center for International Relations at Boston University, presents:

ACTOR NETWORKS IN INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL ECONOMY

Boston University Castle | 225 Bay State Road | March 5-6, 2012

MONDAY, MARCH 5

9:00 - 10:15 THE STATE AS ACTOR AND NETWORK IN INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL ECONOMY

CHAIR

Vivien A. Schmidt, Jean Monnet Professor of European Integration and Professor of International Relations and Political Science, Boston University

PANELISTS

Leonard Seabrooke, University of Warwick

Ole Jacob Sending, NUPI, Oslo

“Professional Expertise in International Organizations”

Daniel Mugge, University of Amsterdam

“Governing Reflexive Finance”

Cornel Ban, Boston University

“Translating the IMF: Economists, Civil Society and the State in Transition Economies”

10:30 - 11:45 LEARNING AND ACTIVISM IN INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL ECONOMY

CHAIR

Kevin Gallagher, Associate Professor of International Relations, Boston University

PANELISTS

David Glick, Boston University

“Corporate Learning on Compliance”

Leonard Seabrooke, University of Warwick

“Socialization and Policy Training in International Economic Organizations”

Duncan Wigan, Copenhagen Business School

“Professional Activism and Policy Influence from Europe: The Case of the Tax Justice Network”

Supported by Boston University and GR:EEEN, a European Commission Framework 7 program examining the current and future role of the EU in an emerging multi-polar world.

