

The Consortium of Universities for Global Health Presents

The 2014 Global Health Video Competition

CUGH's inaugural video competition will showcase important global health issues and innovations. Winners will be highlighted at our 5th Annual Global Health Conference, May 10-12 in Washington, DC!

Video Submission Categories:

- 1) Global Health Advocacy - Outlines a compelling global health challenge.
- 2) Innovations in Global Health – Showcases a high impact innovation in global health.

Criteria:

Videos must be under 5 minutes. They should be compelling, focused, and inspiring. Submissions must include a short description (250 words maximum) about the highlighted issue or innovation. Include your name & contact information.

Limit: 2 submissions per person.

Prizes:

The top 3 winners in each category will be shown at the conference, featured on the CUGH website, included in CUGH's Global Health Newsletter, and given a free conference registration.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: Friday, March 14, 2014 at 11pm EST.

Submit your video to: videocompetition@cugh.org.

By submitting your video to the competition you are giving CUGH permission to share it through the CUGH website and social networking platforms. CUGH membership is NOT required to participate.
