

SHA Required Course Sequencing

- Prerequisite course
- ↔ Linked courses to be taken concurrently

Please Note:

Students must take HF 220 and HF 260 concurrently in the same sections (e.g. A1/A1) Students that are not taking the two courses concurrently for any reason in the same sections (e.g. they are not required to take one of them or a student decides to drop one of the two classes), the students will be placed in designated sections of the courses. Please note, that designated sections are offered in selected semesters only. No exceptions.
