

BOSTON UNIVERSITY MEDICAL GROUP SUMMARY OF EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

This document provides highlights of the employee benefits package for the Boston University Medical Group (BUMG)¹

Flexible Spending Accounts- Dependent Care

Flexible Spending Accounts allow all employees to set aside before-tax contributions through payroll deductions to help pay for eligible dependent child care expenses.

For employees who work at least 50% of a full-time schedule:

Health Plan

The University Health Plan offers employees and their eligible dependents a choice of two health plans:

- BCBS PPO - Preferred Provider Organization
- BU Health Savings Plan - High Deductible Health Plan with a Health Savings Account (HSA) feature. You are eligible to receive an HSA contribution from BU if you enroll in and contribute to the HSA.

Flexible Spending Accounts- Health Care

Flexible Spending Accounts for health care allows employees eligible to participate in the health and dental plans to set aside before-tax contributions through payroll deductions to help pay for eligible out-of-pocket health and dental care expenses.

Dental Health Plan

The University offers employees and their eligible dependents a choice of two dental health plans.

- BU Dental Health Center Plan - Members must receive treatment from one of the BU Dental Health Centers. Plan benefits vary based on the type of dental service.
- Dental Blue Freedom Plan - Members have access to providers at the BU Dental Health Centers, Blue Cross Blue Shield dental network providers, or their own provider. Plan benefits vary based on where you receive care.

Vision Plan

The University offers employees and their eligible dependents a vision plan.

Boston University Retirement Savings Program

Employees are automatically enrolled to contribute 3% of their eligible earnings to the Supplemental Retirement and Savings Plan which is a 403(b) plan. Employees may increase, decrease, or stop their contributions at any time. Employees can contribute on a tax-deferred or Roth after-tax basis to a selection of target retirement funds, a variety of mutual funds, annuity account and a brokerage window. After two years of eligible service, the University will automatically contribute between 4% and 9% of eligible earnings depending on the employee's eligible earnings and age to the BU Retirement Plan, also a 403(b) plan. In addition, the University will match employee contributions up to 3% of eligible earnings. In addition to the BU Retirement & Savings Plan employees earning over $220,000 are also eligible to make additional contributions to the 457(b) Savings Plan, which is a deferred compensation plan.

For full-time employees:

Life Insurance Plan

Employees are eligible for life insurance as follows:

- Basic Life Insurance—The University provides life insurance benefits equal to one times an employee's annual base salary at no cost to the individual.
- Supplemental Life Insurance—Employees may purchase additional insurance up to five times their annual base salary not to exceed $500,000 at a group rate without providing evidence of insurability. Coverage is also available for spouses and dependent children.

Tuition Remission

For both the eligible employee and their dependents, the University pays tuition costs for most courses taken at Boston University. Employees and their dependents must apply for admission and register in the usual manner. The benefit is based on service and includes:

- For the employee—100% tuition remission of the first four credit hours and 90% of an additional four credit hours per semester, if employed on the first and last day of each semester.
- For spouses—After one year of employment, 50% tuition remission.
- For employees' children—After 4 months of employment, 50% tuition remission; after 16 months, 90% tuition remission for up to eight semesters.

Tuition Remission benefits for Graduate level courses taken by an employee or spouse may be subject to taxation.

¹ This document is a summary and does not include all details and restrictions of the various programs. Eligibility for certain benefits may vary based on effort.

Full time is defined as 40 hours per week, including clinical, administrative, research, and education time. More specific information can be found in the BU Faculty and Staff Benefits Handbook, the Human Resources web site at www.bu.edu/hr and the BUMG web site at <http://www.bumc.bu.edu/bumg/>.

Students must be under 27 years old and enrolled in an undergraduate degree program.*

Tuition Exchange Program

Employees who have completed sixteen (16) months of regular full-time employment with Boston University are eligible to apply for participation in the Tuition Exchange program on behalf of their dependent children. Boston University is a member of the Tuition Exchange Inc., a higher education consortium that provides scholarships to dependent children of employees who attend participating colleges and universities. The University selects employees' eligible dependents for the Tuition Exchange program based on length of continuous service at the University.
