Knowing BU: Notable Alumni

Martin Luther King Jr. (GRS’55, Hon.’59)
Civil Rights Activist Martin Luther King Jr. came to the University in 1951, becoming “Dr. King” by earning a Ph.D. in systematic theology in 1955.

Barbara Jordan (LAW’59, Hon.’69)
Barbara Jordan was the first African American elected to the Texas Senate after Reconstruction, and the first African American woman to be elected to Congress from a Southern state.

John Cazale (CFA’59)
Known largely for his role as Fredo Corelone in The Godfather (1972), Cazale is the only actor in history to have every feature film he appeared in earn an Oscar nomination for Best Picture.

Julianne Moore (CFA’83)
Five-time Academy Award nominee and two-time Golden Globe winner, Moore graduated from CFA and went on to win an Oscar for her 2015 film Still Alice.

Drew Weissman (MED’87)
Awarded Columbia’s Horwitz Prize for pioneering research on COVID-19 vaccines.

Jhumpa Lahiri (GRS’93, UNI’95,’97)
In 2003, Lahiri’s collection of short stories won the 2000 Pulitzer Prize and is also known for her best-selling debut novel, The Namesake.

Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez (CAS’11)
Named to the 2019 Time 100 Most Influential People list, AOC is an American politician and activist and serves as the U.S. representative for New York’s 14th congressional district.
Knowing BU: Notable Now & Then

Forefront for Firsts
Boston University is the first University to open all its divisions to female students and then to admit women to a medical college.

The world’s first patent ductus operation, forerunner of open-heart surgery, was performed by School of Medicine faculty member John Streider in March 1937.

Innovative Inventions
Boston University Professor Alexander Graham Bell invents the telephone in 1876.

Prison Education
The University’s Prison Education Program, which is the oldest in the country, is founded by activist and Boston University associate professor emerita, Elizabeth Barker in 1972.

Miniature Heart Replica Built
A Boston University–led team engineered a tiny living heart chamber replica to more accurately mimic the real organ and provide a sandbox for testing new heart disease treatments in April of 2022.

Wage Gap Calculator Developed
The Software & Application Innovation Lab (SAIL) created an employer wage gap calculator that enables employers to calculate gender and racial wage gaps with just the click of a button.

COVID Racial Data Tracker
The COVID Racial Data Tracker (CRDT) advocated for, collected, published, and analyzed racial data on the pandemic across the United States. A collaboration between the COVID Tracking Project and the BU Center for Antiracist Research, it was, while active, the most complete race and ethnicity data repository on COVID-19 in the country.

The Equal Opportunity Office works to promote and realize Boston University’s commitment to provide equitable access for all employees.

We strive to ensure that equal opportunity is a reality at Boston University, and that our faculty, staff, and students can work and study in an environment free from unlawful harassment and discrimination.

The office also ensures employees can access reasonable accommodations within their work environment, and the University meets its obligations under applicable federal and state laws.
Equal Opportunity Office (EOO)

Pregnant Workers Fairness Act

Massachusetts Law: Effective April 1, 2018
Federal Law: Effective June 27, 2023

- Requires employers to provide reasonable accommodations to employee’s known limitations related to pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions.
- Prohibits employment discrimination on the basis of pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions, such as lactation.
- Describes employers’ obligations to employees that are pregnant or lactating and the protections these employees are entitled to receive.
- Generally, employers may not treat employees or job applicants less favorably than other employees based on pregnancy or pregnancy-related conditions and have an obligation to accommodate pregnant workers.
Equal Opportunity Office (EOO)

What EOO Does

Sexual and Gender Based Misconduct
Addressing gender discrimination, including sexual harassment and sexual misconduct

Equal Opportunity
Fostering an inclusive campus environment free from discrimination, harassment and retaliation

Reasonable Accommodations
Ensuring equitable access for employees to all university services, programs and resources

The Boston University Retirement Savings Program comprises three plans. Collectively, these plans are designed to encourage personal savings and provide equitable contributions from BU across all age groups and salary levels.

- BU Retirement Plan: for University contributions
- Supplemental Retirement & Savings Plan: for your contributions
- 457(b) Savings Plan: for contributions for highly paid faculty and staff
BU Retirement Plan

Eligibility & Contributions

- You are automatically enrolled once you have completed 2 years of service working at least 50% of a full-time schedule with a minimum of a 9-month assignment duration.

- Only BU contributes to the Boston University Retirement Plan:

  Core contribution: based on age and salary

  Plus

  Dollar-for-dollar matching contribution: up to 3%
University Core Contribution

The integration level for 2023 is $66,600.

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
In addition to the automatic Core Contribution

BU makes a Matching Contribution up to 3% when you contribute to the Supplemental Retirement and Savings Plan

When you contribute 3% or 2% or 1%, BU will match your contribution

If you choose not to contribute, BU will not make a Matching Contribution

The Paid Family and Medical Leave benefit provides job protection and paid leave for two purposes:

- Personal medical leave applies if your own illness or injury prevents you from working for a week or more
- Family leave applies if you need time to attend to family health concerns, the arrival of a child, or certain matters related to military service

Paid Family and Medical Leave runs concurrently with any leave taken under applicable state and federal leave laws, including the Massachusetts Parental Leave Act (MPLA) and the federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA).

How to Access Benefits

- All leave benefits are administered by Matrix Absence Management

- If you expect to be absent for a week or more and have a need for family or personal medical leave, contact Matrix Absence Management online or by phone to initiate the process:
  - MatrixAbsence.com
  - 877-202-0055

- Contact Matrix Absence Management immediately upon an unplanned leave, or up to 30 days before a planned leave

For non-Massachusetts residents only: If you do not reside in the state of Massachusetts, your state of residence may offer a Paid Family and Leave Benefit. As of August 2023, Paid Family and Medical leave benefits are available in CA, CO, CT, DE, DC, IL, MA, MD, MN, NH, NJ, NY, OR, RI, VT, and WA. At the time of application, you should confirm whether your state offers a plan. If your state of residence offers a Paid Family and Medical leave benefit, you must apply for benefits through both Matrix Absence Management as well as your state of residence. Matrix will assume you are receiving the benefit through your state of residence and offset the benefit available through Boston University unless you demonstrate a written denial of benefits from your state of residence.
