

BU HUB REQUIREMENTS FOR TRANSFER STUDENTS

In the Hub, you will gain a breadth of knowledge and essential skills for your future. Transfer students follow a specially tailored Hub curriculum that builds on the coursework they have completed while assuring that they develop the capacities required of all BU graduates.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Many courses satisfy multiple Hub requirements; most transfer students will fulfill their Hub requirements in 4-5 Hub courses.
- Hub courses can also count toward majors and minors.
- Some Hub requirements assume and build on previous coursework. If you have not taken a first-year writing course, you will need to do so before taking a Writing, Research, and Inquiry or Writing-Intensive course.
- Courses used to fulfill Hub requirements must be taken at Boston University.
- You can see if your AP or other exams satisfy Hub requirements by visiting bu.edu/admissions/apply/faqs-helpful-forms/advanced-credit/.
- Hub Specialty Courses like the Cross-College Challenge (XCC), Hub social and racial justice courses, and cocurriculars are elective courses that provide opportunities to fulfill Hub requirements. Visit bu.edu/hub/specialty-courses to learn more.
