

The One and The Many at Boston University

Boston University Center for the Humanities
Summer 2021 (Remote)

BOSTON
UNIVERSITY

The One and the Many is a high school summer program hosted by the Boston University Center for the Humanities.

With BU faculty, students will explore social change using:

- film
- literature
- archival documents
- foundational political texts

Explore the art and culture of the ancient world

Examine speeches by Rep. John Lewis, Civil Rights leader and U.S. politician.

Learn about the Arab Spring and other revolutionary events and ideas

During the Program

Dates: 7/12/2021-7/30/2021
Monday - Friday (remote)

Students will think with BU faculty about questions such as:

- What is identity?
- What does it mean to be in a community?
- How are social movements built?
- Why should we learn about the past?
- How do we contribute to social change?

PAULA AUSTIN

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF HISTORY AND AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIES

MARISA MILANESE

MASTER LECTURER,
COLLEGE OF ARTS &
SCIENCES WRITING
PROGRAM

JAMES UDEN

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF CLASSICAL STUDIES

Three BU faculty who are dedicated to student growth and love to teach. Their goal is to help students articulate and present their ideas.

Student-Facing Staff:

- 3 Professors
- 4 Mentors
- 3 Graduate Tutors
- 2 Student Life Advisors

MAYA ATAKILTI

GRADUATE MENTORING
PROGRAM DIRECTOR

KIMBER CHEWNING

GRADUATE RESIDENTIAL
LIFE MANAGER

Two Student Life advisors who are excited about supporting students in the (remote) campus environment.

Administrative Staff

Administration

SUSAN L. MIZRUCHI

DIRECTOR

CHRISTINE D'AURIA

GRADUATE INTERN PROJECT
MANAGER FOR TEAGLE
FOUNDATION PLANNING
GRANT

TAMZEN FLANDERS

CENTER ADMINISTRATOR

Co-Curricular Activities

- Level Ground Mixed Martial Arts (founded in Dorchester)
- Arts and crafts
- Game nights
- Guest speakers
- Food justice & sustainability
- Movie nights
- Virtual field trips

Application

- Simple Application (google form)
- Transcript (3.0 gpa- exceptions can be made)
- One recommendation from a teacher
  - Talks about the student as a writer
- Optional second letter
- Short answer responses (300-500 words)
  - Respond to some of the program's themes

A Typical Summer Session Day

9:00am-12:00pm: Seminars led by O&M faculty

12:00pm-1:30pm: Lunch (Provided by O&M)

1:30pm-2:30pm: Tutorials with graduate tutors

2:30pm-3:30pm: Drop-in chats with O&M faculty, mentors, staff, tutors*

3:30pm-5:00pm: Group activities, guest speakers, writing tutorials

7:00pm-9:30pm: Fun evening activities, games, and crafts**

*optional

**some nights

The One and the Many Is for Students Who

Would benefit from/enjoy:

- Conversations about big questions surrounding social and political change
- Building confidence in questioning the world around them
- Support in self advocating
- Working on their writing skills
- Expression through an arts medium
- Experiencing a college environment first-hand in a supportive, friendly environment

<https://www.bu.edu/humanities/opportunities/buk4f/>