

Massachusetts Historical Society

The Massachusetts Historical Society, founded in 1791, collects and communicates materials and resources from America's past to promote understanding of the history of Massachusetts and the nation. The intern will work closely with the Education team to gather sources and create resources that are based on MHS collections for use by K-12 educators as part of our resource portal, the History Source.