

SOWERS OF PEACE: A MULTIFACETED APPROACH TO THE STUDY OF VIOLENCE AND PEACE IN MEXICO

A CONVERSATION WITH FROYLÁN ENCISO, CIDE MÉXICO

Froylán Enciso produces policy materials and conducts advocacy, as Crisis Group's Mexico Senior Analyst. His work focuses on security, drug policy, organised crime, migration and impunity in Mexico.

He has spent more than 15 years as a historian and journalist, conducting extensive field research in Mexico and proposing initiatives to build up civil society capacities, improve governmental response to violence and conflict. He has also worked building alliances between non-governmental actors, media, academia and key governmental officials to address the underlying causes of violence, impunity, crime, and institutional weakness.

Thursday, November 16, 2017 at 3:30 PM

Seminar Room, Institute on Culture, Religion, and World Affairs, 10 Lenox Street

Boston University Pardee School of Global Studies
Center for Latin American Studies

Co-sponsored by the Boston University Center for the Humanities