

The Center for Latin American Studies at Boston University presents

The LGBT Cuban Revolution

A Book Talk by
Wilfred W. Labiosa,
PhD

Tuesday, September 26
12:30 - 1:30 PM
121 Bay State Road

The LGBT Cuban Revolution by Wilfred W. Labiosa, PhD (CGS '91, CAS '93) offers a comprehensive chronology of the LGBT rights movement in Cuba, highlighting the significant milestones, setbacks, and triumphs of this long and arduous journey. It also provides a detailed analysis of the social, cultural, and political factors that have influenced the course of this struggle, giving readers a nuanced understanding of the complexities of the fight for equality.

---

Cuban refreshments available.

Register by scanning QR code or at www.bu.edu/las.

Boston University Pardee School of Global Studies
Center for Latin American Studies

