Tutorial Choices

We expect that Oxford will offer similar choices to those listed below in the next academic year; thus, at a minimum, students will be asked to choose a primary and a secondary tutorial topic from among those listed. In the event this list expands for the coming year, more precise information on tutorial choices will be provided after you apply.

- Public International Law
- Jurisprudence
- Comparative Contract Law
- Corporate Finance
- British Administrative Law
- International Intellectual Property Law
- International Human Rights
- European Union Law
- Commercial Law
- Trusts
- Land Law

Oxford Lectures

Students are required to attend at least two lectures or seminars during Hilary Term. Lectures meet for one to three hours each week, and seminars meet for two hours each week. You may view the current lecture offerings at http://www.law.ox.ac.uk/published/CurrentLectureList.pdf. Final selections take place after students arrive and confer with the Program Director.

Grades

Students will a single grade for the entire Oxford term, comprised of assessments of their performance in the introductory course and tutorials. Students are not assessed in the lectures they attend.

Visas

Information on student visa requirements is here: https://www.ox.ac.uk/students/visa?wssl=1

Housing

Harris Manchester arranges for student housing, sometimes at Harris Manchester itself, but sometimes at another Oxford college or nearby, privately owned flats. Housing and in-college meal plan are included in tuition.

Living Costs

Room and board are included in BU Law tuition charge. Students pay their own living expenses, round-trip transport and local transport. Oxford recommends that students budget £220/week for living expenses, and £105 for a 13-week bus pass (valid virtually everywhere in Oxford).

Other

Students should pack some “formal” attire for the weekly “high table” dinners at Harris Manchester College.
