

HTML Basics

Your basic web page

<html> – Begins your HTML document.

<head> – Contains information about the page such as the title, meta tags for proper search engine indexing, style tags for CSS, and JavaScript coding for special effects.

<title> – The title of your page. This will be visible in the title bar of the browser.

</title> – Closes the <title> tag.

</head> – Closes the <head> tag.

<body> – This is where you will put your document and HTML codes.

</body> – Closes the <body> tag.

</html> – Closes the <html> tag.

Block elements

<h1></h1> - Creates the largest headline

<h6></h6> - Creates the smallest headline

<blockquote> </blockquote> - Indents text from both sides

 - Creates a new paragraph

<table> </table> - Makes a table (see below)

, , or <dl></dl> - Makes a list (see below)

  - Logical division for block element

Inline elements

  - Creates a link

**
 - Line break

<hr></hr> - Inserts a horizontal rule (aka line)

* - Adds an image

Tables

<table> - Begins table
 <tr> - Creates a row
 <td> Cell 1 </td> - Creates a cell
 </tr> - Closes <tr> tag
</table> - Closes <table> tag

Lists

* - Creates a bulleted list
 * - Creates a list item
 * - Creates a list item
* - Closes tag

* - Creates a numbered list

* - Closes tag

<dl> - Creates a definition list
 <dt> </dt> - Marks a term
 <dd> </dd> - Marks a definition
</dl>

Youtube Videos

1. Find your video on youtube
2. Click Share
3. Click Embed
4. Copy and paste the given code onto your source code

More tags

*For more information on tags, check out <http://www.htmldog.com/reference/htmltags/>