Graduate Certificate in Strategic Management in Criminal Justice

Offered on campus and online, the Graduate Certificate in Strategic Management in Criminal Justice at Boston University’s Metropolitan College offers an interdisciplinary curriculum designed to provide the skills needed to face contemporary criminal justice challenges and lead reforms.

Effective leadership in the increasingly complex field of criminal justice requires a strong footing in ethics, business, and analysis, as well as the ability to keep pace with issues that include the realities of terrorism, the emergence of cybercrime, questions of police legitimacy, and stagnant correctional outcomes in terms of recidivism among offenders. The Strategic Management certificate develops valuable skills that enhance the ability to analyze diverse problems and develop sound, sustainable policies that are guided by logic and planning—making it the ideal credential for experienced, mid-career criminal justice professionals who seek to advance in the field.

Our in-depth Strategic Management curriculum is available on a stand-alone basis or as a concentration in the Master of Criminal Justice (MCJ) degree, available on campus and online.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

- Students learn from leading criminal justice faculty with extensive field experience and scholarship in policing, the judicial system, and corrections.
- Certificate credits can later be applied toward the Master of Criminal Justice degree.
- Online format includes lectures and discussion sessions, videos, interactive animations, discussion boards, and more; online courses begin twice a year (Fall 2 and Spring 2).
- Applications are accepted on a rolling admissions basis.
- GMAT/GRE not required.
