

How does Spirit relate to Nature? Hegelian perspectives

13th-14th October 2023

Organized by Giulia Battistoni,
Paolo Degiorgi, Caroline Wall

OCTOBER 13th | 4:00 – 6:00 PM | STH 525

4:00 PM | WELCOMING REMARKS

Sally Sedgwick (Boston University)

Giulia Battistoni (University of Verona/BU)

4:15 PM | KLAUS VIEWEG |
(Friedrich-Schiller-Universität Jena)

Hegel in Heidelberg (1816-1818): The discovery of the Carové manuscripts

5.15 PM | ALLEN SPEIGHT (Boston University)

Hegel and the Philosophy of Culture

OCTOBER 14th | 9:00 AM – 13:00 PM | STH 525

9:00 AM | INTRODUCTION

Paolo Degiorgi (BU) - Caroline Wall (BU)

9:15 AM | ANGELICA NUZZO (CUNY Graduate Center)

Spirit as the 'Other to Nature'

10:00 AM | ELISA MAGRÌ (Boston College)

"A contradiction within reason": the intentionality of feeling and the precariousness of self in Hegel's Anthropology

10:45 – 11:00 AM | BREAK

11:00 AM | KLAUS VIEWEG (Friedrich-Schiller-Universität Jena)

Care and Forethought – Hegel on Sustainability

11:45 AM | GIULIA BATTISTONI (University of Verona/Boston University)

Spirit's relation to Nature: from Hegel and beyond

12:30 AM | CONCLUSION

The event will be held in person and remotely.
For any information and to receive the Zoom link, please contact:

G. Battistoni (gbattist@bu.edu), P. Degiorgi (degiorgi@bu.edu),
C. Wall (cbwall@bu.edu)

Sponsored by the BU Department of Philosophy and

Funded by the European Union

Marie Skłodowska-Curie
Grant agreement No 101064728
Project ReNa