

Sputtering System

- The Denton DC/RF magnetron sputtering system is located in the Class-1000 cleanroom and is used to sputter thin films.
- The sputtering system deposits a thin layer onto a wafer by bombarding target material (such as aluminum or gold) mixed with high-energy ions created by an argon plasma resulting in an ion-enhanced deposition process.