

Wet Chemical Processing

- Salare chemical wet bench hood is located in the Class-100 photolithography room and is designed to vent out harmful chemical vapors.
- Includes a pre-bake and a post-bake hot plate, nitrogen gas for blow drying, DI water spray and goose neck for rinsing.
- The hood is used for photoresist developing and solvent cleaning.

