Required Employment Disclosures

Notice of Non-Discrimination	Boston University policy prohibits discrimination against any individual on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, physical or mental disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, military service, pregnancy or pregnancy-related condition, or because of marital, parental, or veteran status, and acts in conformity with all applicable state and federal laws. This policy extends to all rights, privileges, programs and activities, including admissions, financial assistance, educational and athletic programs, housing, employment, compensation, employee benefits, and the providing of, or access to, University services or facilities. See BU's Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Policy.
Worker's Compensation	Language comes from BU Occupational Health and Safety Website with information on Workers' Compensation Workers' compensation is a state mandated insurance program that governs how employees are compensated for covered occupational injuries and illnesses. Workers' compensation provides medical, disability and possible wage replacement benefits for employees who have had a work related injury or illness. For additional information on Massachusetts Workers' Compensation: www.mass.gov/dia. The University is self-insured for workers' compensation in Massachusetts. Our workers' compensation insurance program is administered by a third party vendor, Cannon Cochran Management Services Inc. (CCMSI). CCMSI partners with BU Occupational Health and Human Resources in managing all workers' compensation claims, including evaluating compensability of each claim and working directly with the injured employee on coordination of benefits.
