Getting started on the pre-law pathway at BU…

5 Key Steps for Your First Year:

☐ Register with Pre-Law Advising and join our mailing list.
   Visit www.bu.edu/prelaw and fill out our online form. You will start receiving our newsletter, Pre-Law Advising News, which will keep you up to date on our programming as well as outside opportunities. We will also share lots of tips and advice through the newsletter.

☐ Attend the Pre-Law Advising Fall Welcome Meeting.
   Meet the pre-law advising staff and student leaders from pre-law organizations on campus. Learn about the benefits of getting involved in a pre-law community at BU and see the range of what is available to you. We’ll announce the details for this early September meeting on our website as well as through Pre-Law Advising News.

☐ Participate in a Pre-Law Basics Workshop.
   These sessions are offered on multiple dates throughout the fall and are designed to introduce you to the pre-law advising process at BU. We’ll share tips and advice for your freshman and sophomore year, and provide resources to explore before attending another group workshop or setting up an individual advising appointment in the spring semester. You are expected to participate in a Pre-Law Basics Workshop before making an individual advising appointment.

☐ Review the content on our Pre-Law Advising website.
   Our Pre-Law Advising website is meant to provide a foundation and a ready reference for you. Familiarize yourself with the information and resources provided there.

☐ Schedule a one-on-one meeting with a pre-law advisor.
   Once you have participated in a Pre-Law Basics Workshop, you are welcome to set up an advising appointment in the spring via Handshake. For students who did not participate in a Pre-Law Basics Workshop in the fall, there will be spring options to choose from as well.
