

College of Communication

Department of Journalism

M.S. in Photojournalism

Program Contact and Title: Peter Southwick, associate professor and program director

College Contact and Title: James Shanahan, professor and associate dean

1. Student Learning Outcomes for the graduate program in Photojournalism.
 - a) The student will produce a set of photographs of a subject or event that will communicate the essence of that subject matter to the viewers of the photographs, and to edit those images in a presentation with an effective and coherent story line.
 - b) The student will apply a variety of media including photographs, video, sound, and text in order to create multimedia packages conveying stories to a general audience.
 - c) The student will articulate and employ fundamentals of journalism based on knowledge of the history of ethical and legal standards.
 - d) The student will utilize sound business practices in the professional world of journalism.