WHAT TYPES OF RESOURCES ARE AVAILABLE?

Merit Scholarships. All part-time applicants are automatically considered for merit scholarships, which are determined by the Admission Committee. Recipients are notified at the time of acceptance in their official acceptance packet.

Federal Direct Stafford Loan. This federal program offers a low-interest loan to students for educational expenses. For most current interest rates and loan fees for both the Direct Stafford and the Federal Graduate PLUS, please visit the U.S. Department site at studentaid.ed.gov/types/loans/subsidized-unsubsidized#what-are-the-current.

Unsubsidized Direct Stafford Loan is one in which the government will not pay the interest payments while you are enrolled at least half-time and during your grace period. Interest accrues and may be paid by you or deferred until the beginning of your loan repayment period. The maximum unsubsidized loan limit is $10,250 per semester.

Payment Plan. Part-time students have the option to enroll in one of two Deferred Payment Plans. Please refer to the Payment Plan Options for more information.

Private Scholarships. There are some private sources of scholarships available to students. These are funding sources not affiliated with Boston University and require students to research and apply for this type of funding on their own.
